

FULTON THEATRE

Sensory-Friendly Performance

ALICE IN WONDERLAND

Sponsored by
Edith L. Trees
Charitable Trust

Saturday, May 3 at 9:00 am
Fulton Theatre, 12 N Prince St, Lancaster

The Fulton Theatre will present a dedicated sensory-friendly performance of Alice in Wonderland on Saturday, May 3, 2025 at 9:00 am. This performance will be a relaxed, friendly, and supportive environment for children and adults who are diagnosed with an autism spectrum disorder or other sensory needs, and their families. The performance will run under an hour.

Sensory Friendly performance adjustments include:

- Spacing between families seated in the theatre
- Reduction of any loud and jarring sounds
- Eliminating strobe and flashing lights
- House lights will be faintly dimmed, but remain on
- Reduction of any elements of the show that might be considered “scary”
- Break areas will be available with a live video feed of the show for anyone who may need to leave their seats during the performance
- A social story will be made available on the Fulton Theatre website to help audience members prepare for a performance at the theatre
- A team of volunteers and educators will be available to offer support throughout the theatre
- A special fidget will be given to each child attending the performance
- Parking is available across the street, adjacent to Central Market

Reserve your tickets today!

Tickets will be available at a Pay-What-You-Want rate and can be reserved by contacting the Fulton Theatre Box Office at (717) 397-7425, or scanning the QR code:

Thank you to our Sensory Friendly Program Sponsor Edith L. Trees Charitable Trust, and to the Messiah University Master of Occupational Therapy program for their advisory support.