Code Of The Freaks

A radical reframing of the use of disabled characters in film, gathering hundreds of clips from over a century of Hollywood favorites – viewed with a fresh perspective by on-the-ground disability activists, artists, and scholars. CODE OF THE FREAKS counters formulaic “inspiration porn” with a powerful corrective, daring to imagine a cinematic landscape that centers the voices of people with disabilities. The film itself is captioned. The live pre-screening panel and post-screening Q&A with the director will be ASL-Interpreted.

The Vanishing Elephant, "An Alluring Spectacle"

A moving story of friendship, belonging, and one incredible journey from Bengal to the bright lights of Broadway, presented by the beloved Cahoots Theatre Company of Belfast, Northern Ireland.

Opu, a young boy in Bengal, dreams of one day becoming an elephant trainer. When he befriends Janu, an Asian elephant, their friendship is the first step on an adventure so huge, it spans decades and continents. Years in the future, Opu, now an old man, hears that the world-famous magician Harry Houdini will vanish an elephant on stage in New York City. Could it possibly be his old friend Janu so far from home? He must bravely make the long journey into the unknown to find out.
